As its name suggests "Sunset", located on the western side of Inchcape's ocean front coral rocks, is the ideal vantage point from which to enjoy the ever changing tableau of a colorful Caribbean sunset. This ground floor apartment has a large covered terrace, complete with hammock, which overlooks a magnificent vista of white sand beach and foam capped waves.

It is charmingly decorated and its two bedrooms, each with bathrooms en suite, large living room and spacious kitchen, provide a comfortable vacation home.
